

FOR THE WORLD'S FAIR.

People are Determined to go and to go at Once.

CROWD DOES NOT FRIGHTEN THEM

A Decided Rush by the Intelligencer Route Yesterday and a Large Delegation Booked for To-day—The Out-of-Town People Availing Themselves of the Opportunity Afforded by the Intelligencer—Departures Yesterday and To-day.

In spite of the frank announcement in yesterday's INTELLIGENCER notifying its friends that good accommodations at low rates were almost impossible to get in Chicago, the INTELLIGENCER counting room force was kept busy all day waiting on persons determined to go. Fortunately telegrams were received from two of the INTELLIGENCER hotels saying that they could take a limited number of persons.

On the strength of these assurances, and with the understanding that hotel coupons not used will be redeemed dollar for dollar, between fifty and sixty tourists leave at 6:50 this morning on the INTELLIGENCER plan via the B. & O. Others will go at 1:25 and 3:50 p. m. The INTELLIGENCER is still of the opinion that it is better to wait for a day or two until the crowd diminishes and there is less pressure on the hotels, but whatever can be done shall be done for the accommodation of those desiring to go at once. As soon as accommodations in the hotels are more plentiful the INTELLIGENCER will have due notice, so that those contemplating the trip will consult their own comfort and convenience by advising the INTELLIGENCER at once of their desire to make use of its World's Fair service.

In answer to many inquiries coming from West Virginia, Ohio and Pennsylvania it must be said that the INTELLIGENCER cannot make arrangements that would be satisfactory to its friends unless they start from Wheeling or Baltimore. The next ten days cheap excursions on the INTELLIGENCER plan, after to-day, so far as is now known, will be on Thursday, October 19. If any change be made in the excursion arrangements due notice will be given through these columns. Tourists may on any day on tickets good until November 5 and allowing sleeper privileges.

"Kidnapped" Coming.

At the Opera House next Friday and Saturday evening and Saturday matinee "Kidnapped" a strikingly sensational melodrama, will be produced.

It is a new play from the pen of D. K. Higgins, who plays a leading part in it. The story is of unusual interest, and holds the attention until the close. It is a graphic stage picture of metropolitan life with strong climaxes and plenty of comedy. The scenes are laid in New York City, and there is a beautiful love story unfolded in choice language.

The cast is strong. A patrol wagon is used, drawn by a span of blooded horses.

Headwater Reports.

Headwater reports received last night were as follows:

Warren, Pa.—River two-tenths of a foot below zero; weather clear and warm.

Greensboro, Pa.—River 6 feet 6 inches and falling; clear and warm.

Morgantown, W. Va.—River 4 feet 9 inches; clear and warm.

Loss of Sleep.

Makes people nervous and irritable and occasions a great deal of complaint on their part, but why should anybody complain about losing sleep last night on account of that hacking cough when Cubeb Cough Cure will relieve it in sixty seconds. It is not a cure for consumption but affords relief and will prevent it.

Don't Be Left.

One who hasn't seen the World's Fair won't be "in it" after the show is over. The INTELLIGENCER makes the way easy.

TEUTONIA'S OPENING

Hall and Concert Last Evening an Immense Success.

Last evening at Teutonia hall on South Jacob street, the Teutonia Singing Society gave its first grand concert and ball of the season. It was an immense success in every particular; the attendance was larger than the wildest enthusiast predicted, the concert programme was carried out without a hitch, excellently, and the ball which followed was a most enjoyable and brilliant affair. In a word, the Teutonia have grandly initiated their season.

The following was the concert programme, which was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by the large audience:

Overture—F. Fischer.
Chor. Solo—"Wanderer"—F. Fischer.
Teutonia Gesangverein.
Vocal Solo—"On Venice Water"—Miss L. Knapp.
Violin Solo—"Fifth Air Variations"—C. DeBart.
Vocal Solo—"Creep, Baby, Creep"—C. Hauser.
Konsche Quartet—"The Four Seasons"—F. Baet.
Tenorist, Mr. F. Schaub; Pianist, Mr. H. Reuter.

Overture—F. Fischer.
Grand Mixed Chorus—"The Wanderer"—L. Schumann.
Gesangverein and ladies.

Violin Solo—"An den Seidenwebern"—L. Rods.
Chor. Solo—"An den Seidenwebern"—L. Rods.
Vocal Solo—"Three Little Girls don't Cry"—P. Schneck.
Konsche Quartet—"Die Vier Elemente"—R. Heine.

Der Witz, F. Heilerich; Der Schnap, R. Heine; Der Wasserkrug, C. Dammberg; Der Biertrinker, H. Reuter.

The singing of the ladies' section was especially fine, and in the opinion of disinterested critics there are coming voices in the Teutonia's ranks. The various solo numbers on the programme were also very fine. The ball lasted until early dawn.

THAT NEW MOTOR LINE.

A Correspondent Offers Some Suggestions for Council.

Sir:—Quick and convenient transit, is a question of commanding importance to every city, which is keeping step with the progress of the age.

There are questions involved, however, concerning rights, belonging to city residents and taxpayers, which are extremely difficult to settle, on a basis, fair to all interests concerned.

It is surely unfair, and possibly wrong, that holders of property, who have paid taxes for long years and supported the city in her general policy of improvements, shall now be deprived of the right to the quiet enjoyment of their property and homes, simply, that some railway company may make good, round dividends out of the ruin.

It is surely the people, who remain in the city, who are most deeply interested in this transit issue. Those who will reside in the suburbs are not helping to pay city taxes; except on their business, and are chiefly concerned to be rapidly spirited away from noise and dust to some shady nook where in quiet retreat they lie down to peaceful dreams.

I'm not sorry for these people. It is the condition and surroundings of the other poor fellow, who lives on the street car line, and near the "loop" that moves my pity.

The unfortunate people, who live on Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets, have much more, than their share, of annoyance from dust and smoke. The latter street is well known, with thundering freight trains and belching smoke which often extends a square, north and south of Seventeenth.

I am well aware of some of these nuisances are now unavoidable. They were not so in the inception of our grants to incorporated companies, and could have been easily abated by our councils.

The opportunity will soon come up again, for those in authority to either conserve the interests of our citizens or allow those interests to go by default for want of grit and good common sense. It is hoped gentlemen in charge of city affairs will see that no double dealing or vague wording of agreements will come up in the future to plague us.

Two wrongs never made a right, and while I would not willingly rob my fellow citizen of a single enjoyment or lessen the pleasures which come too seldom to all of us, still in seeking our blessings and betterment. It is not fair to infringe on the rights of others, nor is it just that any transfer company or railway shall by indefinite wording, or any other subterfuge take from the owners of abutting property rights that were not intended to be conveyed.

In adopting a transit power, electricity only should be used. This suggestion is in the line of progress, and your readers, Mr. Editor, say—down with smoke, soot and bad odors on any new motor line into or out of our city.

At the residence of Mr. John Reid, on North Fifth street, Tuesday evening, a "Dickens Party" was given. It was entirely different from most parties and was greatly enjoyed by all those fortunate enough to be present.
